

VIOLENCE THREAT RISK ASSESSMENT

A Violence Threat Risk Assessment is a process of determining if a threat maker actually poses a risk to the target(s) being threatened. The School Threat Assessment Team will initiate a Violence Threat Risk Assessment (VTRA) Screening when a student makes a threat, or if there is a concern that a student may be about to act out violently or has acted out violently. Information